Report of

Pamphlets Distribution on

“TOGETHER FOR A RAGGING-FREE FUTURE”

Objectives:

- To create awareness among students and the public about the evils of ragging and its legal consequences.
- To educate them about anti-ragging laws and the rights of students.
- To promote constitutional values such as dignity, equality and mutual respect.

The Legal Literacy Club of Holy Cross College (Autonomous), Nagercoil organized a Pamphlets Distribution Programme on “Together for a Ragging-Free Future” on 09-12-2025 at Parakkai. The programme aimed to spread awareness about anti-ragging measures and the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful learning environment.

The programme began with a brief introduction highlighting the seriousness of ragging as a social and legal issue. Pamphlets containing information on anti-ragging laws, students’ rights, and preventive measures were distributed to the public. The organizers explained the contents of the pamphlets and emphasized zero tolerance towards ragging. The interaction with the public helped in reinforcing the message of legal awareness and social responsibility.

The programme concluded with a call to uphold human dignity and to actively contribute towards creating a ragging-free society.

Outcome:

Participants became aware of the legal consequences of ragging and the importance of respecting individual rights and dignity.

Impact: The outreach programme reinforced the message of zero tolerance towards ragging and promoted a safe educational environment.

Report of the Session on Property Rights of Women in India

Objectives:

- To create awareness among students about the property rights of women in India.
- To educate students on legal provisions related to inheritance and ownership rights of women.
- To promote gender equality and empower women through legal literacy.

The Legal Literacy Club of Holy Cross College (Autonomous), Nagercoil organized a session on “Property Rights of Women in India” on 24-02-2026 at Room No. 67. The programme aimed to sensitize students to the legal rights of women regarding property ownership and inheritance in India. The session commenced with an introduction emphasizing the importance of legal awareness in ensuring gender equality and justice. The resource person, Ms. Fransta Darshana, Assistant Professor, Department of English, delivered an informative and engaging talk on the legal framework governing women’s property rights in India. The speaker explained various laws related to women’s rights in ancestral and self-acquired property, including provisions under the Hindu Succession Act and other relevant legal frameworks. The session was interactive, with students actively participating and clarifying their doubts regarding inheritance laws and women’s legal rights. The programme concluded with an emphasis on promoting awareness, equality and justice through legal education.

Outcome:

- Students gained knowledge about women’s property rights and legal provisions in India.
- Participants developed awareness of gender equality and legal empowerment.

Impact:

The session enhanced students’ understanding of women’s legal rights and encouraged them to support gender justice and equality in society.

Report of the Drawing Competition on “ANTI-DRUG AWARENESS”

Objectives:

- To promote awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse.
- To encourage students to express anti-drug messages creatively.
- To build a drug-free campus environment through awareness activities.

The Legal Literacy Committee organized a Drawing Competition on Anti-Drug Awareness on 25th August 2025 at 11:50 AM in Room No. 71. The event aimed to sensitize students about the consequences of drug addiction and motivate them to uphold a healthy lifestyle. Students actively participated by creating meaningful drawings that highlighted the seriousness of substance abuse among youth. The competition provided a strong platform for students to reflect and convey preventive messages through art.

Outcome:

Students were motivated to commit to a drug-free lifestyle and to spread awareness in society.

Impact: The competition fostered creative expression while reinforcing strong anti-drug values among students.
