ENGLISH THROUGH LANGUAGE LABORATORY

Holy Cross College (Autonomous), Nagercoil, initiated English through language laboratory. This program was part of the Ability Enhancement Compulsory Course (AECC), aimed at enhancing the English language skills of students through the use of a language laboratory. The course focused on improving various aspects of language proficiency, including listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills. The interactive sessions utilized advanced technological tools to create an engaging and immersive learning environment. Students participated in exercises designed to improve pronunciation, vocabulary, and grammar, alongside activities that boosted their confidence in conversational English. The success of this course underscored the college's commitment to providing high-quality language education and equipping students with essential communication skills. The positive feedback from participants highlighted the effectiveness of the language lab in fostering significant improvements in their English language abilities. This initiative has set a strong foundation for future programs aimed at language enhancement and overall academic excellence. 689 students were benefited from this course.
